

ART Resources

ArtLex is a dictionary of visual art. From Baroque to Pop Art, from Realism to Renaissance--all those confusing art terms are defined here, along with notes on how to pronounce them. Included are over 2,600 techniques, styles, and art history words.

Marco Polo's ARTSEdge supports the place of arts education at the center of the curriculum through the creative and appropriate uses of technology. ARTSEdge helps educators to teach in, through and about the arts.

Marco Polo's EDSITEment -- The Best of the Humanities on the Web from the National Endowment for the Humanities in partnership with the National Trust for the Humanities, and the MarcoPolo Education Foundation. This educational partnership brings online art, literature and language arts, social studies and history, foreign language resources from some of the world's great museums, libraries, cultural institutions, and universities directly to your classroom.

All About Art -- This page is about art and artists. You can learn about famous artists, their styles, and see different kinds of art done by kids! It contains links to other internet art sites and famous art museums where you can see the artwork of your favorite artist. Also, it includes games that test your knowledge on what you have learned.

The World's Artists Directory consists of the World Artist Directory which is the net's Source for Accomplished Artist Worldwide, free downloadable lessons, art rule crafts, craft exchange, lessons and tutorials, art glossary, art terms and definitions, the world wide webs art search engine, and many more things!

Sanford: A Lifetime of Color includes hands-on activities, general lesson plans (integrating art into the general curriculum), art intensive lesson plans, technique demos, student gallery, featured artist, art timeline, artist biographies, glossary of terms, art games, online activities about: color, portraits, Leonardo da Vinci's, Renaissance Architecture and more!